

Giant Junction Jumble Sale 2026

GENERAL ADVICE

- Please do not block the sidewalk (we want to keep these clear for pedestrians)
- Be prepared to negotiate 😊
- Encourage folks to visit the other streets!
- Try to keep your sale in the front of your property. If this is not an option, make sure to have signs with directions signs telling people where to go.

WHAT TO SELL

- Let things you no longer want OR need become someone else's treasure!
- People will buy almost anything!
- The most important thing is to make sure what you put out is clean and not broken.
- Display your stuff in an appealing way.
- Set up in easy groupings.

Here are some suggested key areas:

Clothing & Accessories

The best sellers are gently used name brands, vintage and seasonal items, shoes in good condition, and children's clothing. Avoid heavily worn, stained, or out-of-style pieces unless priced very low. If you have things that are quite worn/stained- toss them in a free box! Or better yet- use these as wrap to protect breakable items! Don't forget shoes, sandals, boots, skates, cleats or other footwear!

Furniture & Home Goods

Small furniture is gold: side tables, chairs, lamps, mirrors, and shelving. Kitchen items like appliances, cookware, and gadgets are consistent top performers. Decor items (vases, picture frames, candles) move well when displayed attractively. Make sure that everything is wiped down and cleaned up.

Electronics & Media

Working electronics sell fast. Records, DVDs, CDs, and video games are back in fashion, especially older titles. Gaming consoles and accessories, cables, charging blocks, misc wires and small gadgets are popular. Always test and mark electronics as "tested/working" where possible. As a bonus consider offering a place for buyers to plug in and test for themselves.

Toys, Games & Kids Items

Complete board games, LEGO (by the pound/bag works great), bikes, outdoor toys, and baby gear are among the highest-demand yard sale categories. Incomplete games should be marked down or sold as-is.

Tools & Sporting Goods

Hand tools, garden tools, camping gear, and exercise equipment draw in serious buyers who will often pay fair prices. These are items people need and don't want to buy new.

Books & Magazines

Price low and sell in bundles. A "3 for $1" or "$5 bag" strategy clears inventory fast. Children's books and cookbooks tend to sell the best individually.

Other Ideas

- Jewelry
- Fashion Accessories: bags, purses, ties, belts, etc.
- Home renovation / building supplies
- Plant seedlings
- Kitchenware, dishes, glasses, cutlery

RECOMMENDED PRICING

Post a list(s) where the prices can be easily seen.

The golden rule: price at 10–30% of original retail value. Here's a practical breakdown:

Adult clothing (tops, pants) $3 – $10

Adult shoes $3 – $8

Children's clothing $0.50 – $5

Children's shoes $1 – $5

Dresses / coats / jackets $3 – $12

Small kitchen appliances $5 – $20

Cookware / pots & pans $2 – $10

Dishes / glassware (each) $0.25 – $1

Small furniture (chairs, tables) $10 – $40

Lamps $5 – $15

Books (hardcover) $0.50 – $2

Books (paperback) $0.25 – $1

DVDs / CDs $0.50 – $2

Video games $2 – $10

Board games (complete) $2 – $8

LEGO (per pound) $4 – $10

Kids' bikes $15 – $40

Hand tools $2 – $15

Power tools $10 – $40

Exercise equipment $10 – $50

Jewelry (costume) $0.25 – $3

Electronics (tested)$5 – $30

Bags / purses $2 – $10

DISPLAY & SETUP TIPS

- Use tables wherever possible. Items on the ground are more likely to get ignored. Borrow folding tables, use plywood on sawhorses, or stack boxes under tablecloths. If you don't have a table and are willing to buy one, Canadian Tire sells a very useful folding table that stores easily and you will surely use again for about $60.
- Group like with like. Clothing together, kitchen items together, books in a bin. Shoppers think categorically.
- Hang clothing when possible. A simple rack or line dramatically increases clothing sales vs. piles on a table.
- Face items outward toward the street to catch drive-by attention. Put your best, most eye-catching pieces at the curb.
- Use clear labels or stickers on everything. Unpriced items = items people put back down. Shoppers hate asking. Consider using pricing categories: red stickers are $1, blue stickers are $2, etc. It allows you to reduce prices dynamically as the sale draws to a close.

PRICING PSYCHOLOGY

- Bundle slow movers. "5 books for $2" or "Fill a bag for $5" clears volume.
- Use odd pricing. $1.50 feels more deliberate than $2, and buyers are less likely to negotiate.
- Plan your markdown schedule. Start full price in the morning, discount 25–50% after noon, and go "make an offer" in the final hour.
- Don't be offended by hagglers. Negotiation is expected. If you're not willing to budge, price 20% higher than your minimum.

LOGISTICS & DAY-OF TIPS

- Start setup 1 hour before opening. Early birds will show up before the official start time.
- Have plenty of change. Bring at least $50 in small bills and coins. Unless you're set up to receive card payments or are working on a barter system your transactions are going to be in cash. Post a sign in a visible location with the details for e-transfer.
- Offer bags. This is a great way to get rid of all those random reusable shopping bags I know we've all got hoarded away.
- Use a cash box or fanny pack to keep money secure and on your person.
- Keep an extension cord handy so buyers can test electronics on the spot.
- Have cleaning supplies nearby — a quick wipe-down of a dusty item before handing it over goes a long way.

BEFORE & AFTER

- Invite your friends! Participate in the local Facebook Event page. Get the word out. The more traffic we can collectively drive the better time everyone will have.
- Add your home to the sale map.
- Want to sell food? Have at it! Fresh baked goods, water and popsicles will be welcome additions and can give little ones the opportunity to be engaged in the sale.
- Consider putting out balloons on the day-of to draw in passersby.
- Decide in advance what happens to unsold items: donate to Goodwill/Salvation Army, list on Facebook Marketplace, or schedule a pickup with a local charity. Don't let it all drift back into your house.

HAVE FUN!